Mayor Accepts Council's Selection

Committee Chairmen Yet to Be Named; One Alderman Protests

Committees were named for the Granite City council Monday night, and Mayor Partney said he would accept the selections made by the council and would name the chairmen by the next session.

It has been nearly a year since the council has operated with regular committees, although a few special committees continued to function during the period of controversy.

Mayor Partney expressed disappointment that all aldermen were not consulted on the appointments.

The committee selection was presented by Alderman Robertson, and Alderman Whitmer immediately called for a copy of the names to study before voting on acceptance.

Robertson replied he had only the one copy.

Who Did It?
Whitmer remarked that he was not consulted on the selections, and Boker asked, "Who was the committee on committees?"

Robertson answered, "A majority of the council."
Boker asked that he would have liked to have been in on the selection.

Other aldermen who said they also "did not sit in on the selection" were Partney, Poulos, Morien, Dallas and Rutledge. Whitmer was critical of the selection, saying experienced and qualified aldermen were not named to the more important committees. He added that the continuing problems of the council would not be eased during the next year.

"Riding Shotgun"
This is the wrong way to do it, and I'll be riding shotgun all the way."

Whitmer added that the council majority had excluded one of the most qualified aldermen in naming the Finance committee. He mentioned no names, but Rutledge's name was whispered around.

"The people don't know what is behind this, but they'll learn why you have kept off qualified people and put in those of the in-group," Whitmer stated.

Mayor Partney spoke up at this point, saying, "To keep down the argument, I hope the committee will be accepted and all of the members will work."

Norm remarked to Whitmer, who told him to "address the council, not me," that it was only a few years ago that he (Norm) had been excluded from committees by a former mayor.

"And I'm starting my 71st year on the council tonight."

Green commented that he had never questioned his role on any committees but tried to do the job assigned. Poulos added that Mayor Partney had kept Rutledge and Whitmer on key committees repeatedly even though he said he would change the committees around.

Robertson reminded everyone that under an ordinance adopted last year, the council had authority to select committees. He called upon Clerk Pendleton to read the ordinance, but

A Mother to Be Honored

National Hospital Week Events at St. Elizabeth

Several special events planned next week at St. Elizabeth Hospital in recognition of National Hospital Week were announced today by Sister Mary Thomas, hospital administrator. The national and local observance is scheduled to start Sunday and continue through the following Saturday.

The week will begin with a traditional event at the local hospital, the presentation of the annual service awards program to the mother of the infant born Sunday—Mother's Day.

The new mother and child will receive from the hospital a layette and a dozen roses and the father will be remembered by receiving a 100% discount on his wife's hospital bill not covered by insurance.

On Wednesday from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m., the St. Elizabeth Hospital public relations committee will sponsor its annual "Pancake and Sausage Dinner," in the hospital cafeteria.

Open to the public, the "all you can eat" affair may be patronized for a donation of $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children, with contributions taken at the door. Advance tickets also may be purchased.

Other activities planned during the week, include the Nurses Alumni Tea, set for Tuesday; the annual service awards program for hospital employees on Wednesday; the traditional doctory breakfast at 7:30 a.m. Thursday; and several programs arranged for employees by the Quad-Cities Ministerial Association on Thursday and Friday.

The building, owned by William Seabold of the Granite City Boat & Motor Co. at 24th street and Madison avenue, was valued at $5000 and was insured for $2000. It was reported that the furniture had not been insured.

Firemen had some difficulty in extinguishing the fire as there were three different explosions. In addition to the large drum, the garage contained three five-gallon cans of gasoline and containers of fuel oil.

Two firemen used oxygen masks and tanks when they entered the flaming and smoking building and none was injured except for discomfort to the eyes and throat.

Traffic was re-routed around Madison avenue during the fire. Enroute to the fire, a Westgate drive, as the truck was turning into the alley on 24th street between Madison avenue and Iowa streets.

Griffith announced at the same time that his office is preparing to file a large number of suits in magistrate court to force payment of delinquent personal property taxes. The suits will be initiated after the office of County Treasurer John Maers sends out a series of warning notices. The notices will be mailed in about two weeks, Griffith said.

The state's attorney said that delinquent personal property taxes totaling about $1 million will be involved in the suits against individual taxpayers. In addition to the delinquent taxpayers named in suits also will have the added expense of paying the attorney's fees.

Griffith noted, 1960 and 1950 in those hearings, and other setting will be planned in Edwardsville to hear tax objections filed from 1950 to 1960.

GC Comptroller To Keep Office For Fiscal Year

Injured Boy, 10, Found in Street; Cause Unknown

A ten-year-old boy found lying unconscious by the side of a road after he fell or was knocked from his bicycle was taken by a passing ambulance driver to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted at 6 p.m. Tuesday.

The boy, Scott Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mullen, 3300 Franklin avenue, was still unconscious when treated at the hospital emergency room. His injuries included lacerations to the upper lip and abrasions to the right shoulder and side. Most of his front teeth were knocked out.

A fourth grade pupil at Frohardt school, Scott is unable to remember whether he fell from the bicycle to avoid a car striking him or if he was actually hit by a vehicle, Mrs. Mullen said. The accident occurred on Franklin, near Clark avenue, about one block from the family home.

Fire caused damage totaling about $6500 to the garage apartment of Charles Ellsworth, 2408 (r) Madison avenue, and burned the occupant on Tuesday afternoon.

Firemen, who received the alarm at 12:35 p.m., said Ellsworth was attempting to pour gasoline from a 55-gallon drum into a five-gallon can in the garage when the smaller can tipped over and flames were ignited by the pilot light on a hot-water heater.

The 55-gallon drum also ignited. Ellsworth suffered burns to the left hand and arm, side of his face and back of his head and scalded his right arm and hand. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was given treatment and was released.

His wife and two children were visiting out-of-town at the time. Before leaving the building, Ellsworth was able to move a new color television set outside.

Recently Redecorated
All of the furnishings in the recently redecorated four-room apartment over the garage were new, and all but the TV set were destroyed. Firemen estimated damage to the furnishings at $3000 and to the building at $3500.

The building, owned by William Seabold of the Granite City Boat & Motor Co. at 24th street and Madison avenue, was valued at $5000 and was insured for $2000. It was reported that the furniture had not been insured.

47 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

The office of comptroller was created in 1931 with the qualifications and duties provided by the legislature. There was a need for a person with an accounting background to perform these duties, with an appropriation of $25,000 to run our city.

Today, with an appropriation of better than $2½ million there is a greater need for this type of person to handle our citizens' financing. Whoever handles the city's finances should be required to have a degree in accounting and financial management.

In all respect to the office of city clerk, the office requires no financial or accounting abilities. It is strictly an office acquired through a popular election.

Title Program In GC Schools Enters 3rd Year

Granite City school district's Title I program under the Elementary-Secondary Education Act, offering remedial reading classes, pre-school classes, nursing and counseling services at four attendance centers, is in its third year of operation and will be financed this year with a grant of $135,000, it was announced yesterday by Dale C. Rea, assistant school superintendent who is in charge of the local program.

Attendance centers are located at Emerson, Logan, Washington and Webster schools, Rea said. D. K. Darling, former superintendent of schools at Collinsville, is regional supervisor of the Title I program.

An in-service training program for school personnel participating in the program was conducted last week.

Dr. Benjamin Rose, Granite City optometrist, listed optometric recommendations for developing a reading readiness instruction in children, and described room arrangements, furnishings and children's posture as determined by national studies which permit optimal use of a child's visual motor capacity. Dr. Rose also discussed observable symptoms of visual difficulties and specific techniques for working with perceptually handicapped.

A demonstration of pacing devices and materials which are used in the Title I remedial program was given, and Dr. Stanley Maer, past president of the Illinois Optometric Association, spoke on the team approach to diagnosis and remediation of learning disabilities, specifically those in the visual motor skills. He also described various programs throughout the state in the public schools and in private practice. Plans for the summer program were discussed during the afternoon session.

500 Honor Morris On 20th Anniversary

Delyte W. Morris started his 21st year following inauguration as president of Southern Illinois University Tuesday.

Well-wishers gave him an eight-minute standing ovation Monday night at an anniversary party staged by Southern Illinois business and professional leaders and faculty friends. More than 100 people were present from the SIU-Southwestern Campus area.

The 500 banquet guests from southern Illinois towns were joined at the conclusion of the meal, served in the Arena, by several hundred faculty members to hear the anniversary remarks and attend the reception.

An unplanned feature of the event was the appearance of an estimated 150 young men and women, many barefoot and with long hair, who filed into the building to take seats in upper tiers of the balcony. There was no disorder and the "flower children" marched out past the speaker's platform while the audience was giving its standing ovation to President and Mrs. Morris. The young people milled about at the reception and many went through the receiving line to shake hands with the Morrises.

Woman Hit by Bottle, 2 Venice Men Arrested

Viola Clemons, 24, of 307 Weaver street, was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 8:55 p.m. Tuesday for lacerations to the forehead inflicted when she was struck on the head with a bottle at Garrett's tavern, according to Venice police. She was released after treatment requiring 26 sutures.

Officers said they arrested Marvin Clemons, 25, of the Weaver street address, and Steve Whitley, 50, in connection with the case about two hours after the Clemons woman was injured.

Police said they were called at 10:33 p.m. to 1047 Douglas street where they were told that a back door glass had been broken by a thrown object. On the porch of the home, police said they found Whitley whom they had been seeking as the man who struck the Clemons woman.

Whitley told them he had been chased by a man who threw a fence picket at him as he ran up on the porch. The picket broke the door glass. Police said they picked up Clemons nearby and found a butcher knife on him. They booked Clemons on a charge of unlawful use of a weapon, and charged Whitley with battery.

Drive carefully in traffic — don't break the family circle.

An official, Peter LaFrank of Collinsville, was injured by a competitive shot put during the Granite City high school track meet here Tuesday.

LaFrank was standing in the shotput landing area anticipating the spot where the lead eight pound shot would land, preparing to obtain an accurate measurement of the throw. He was hit on the left forehead and hand by a fractured eye socket with eye muscle damage. La Frank was taken directly to Barnes Hospital in St. Louis.

The hospital described his condition as satisfactory. He was awaiting surgery.

Lump in Trojan Throats Gives Victory to Dupo

The Trojans must have been thinking of the beautiful Helen when they lost at Dupo Monday, 7-6.

Don Bunk (3 hits, no walks, 3-0) started on the mound and was replaced in the first after two outs: Doug DeKosier (3 hits, 3 walks, 6-0) relieved until Bunk returned from the outfield during the sixth inning. DeKosier was charged with the loss.

The game began with Trojan Jim Irvin singling. Don Bunk doubling and Bill Campbell walking to load the bases. Doug DeKosier was hit by a pitch, forcing in a run. Then the Nemesis began to work. Jim Scott hit the pitcher for a throw out at the plate, and instead of racing for first base, he strolled to the bench and sat down. Coach Larry Burns quickly called time out, but Jim Scott was ruled out. Bob Scott popped out, ending the first act of the Trojan tragedy.

Dupo scored two in the last half of the first inning. In the second frame, Madison's Mark Wells tried to stretch a single into a double and was thrown out. John Harp walked, scored second and crossed the plate on an error.

The score board three in the third. In the fifth frame, Bunk singled and Campbell walked. In an attempt to pick off Campbell the ball was thrown away, advancing the runners to second and third bases. DeKosier hit a loop that dropped in center field scoring two runs. Madison grabbed the lead in the sixth. Bob Scott led off with a double. Dale Clinton singled putting runners on first and third. C. Prothro pinched hit for Harper and walked, loading the bases. Irvin singled home two runs. Madison led 6-5.

In the bottom of the sixth the pressure of a possible win must have blown a tube in several Trojan minds.

The first batter walked and the next bunted safely. Then DeKosier threw a wild pitch to allow runners to advance with no runs. Bunk came in from left field to pitch. Bunk struck out one. The next batter hit a grounder for a throw out at the plate.

With two out and Dupo Tigers on first and third, the runner at first base began to simply walk toward second base. Bunk threw to the second baseman, Clinton, who considered the situation for a few moments and threw to the plate too late, allowing the game to tie.

With a runner on third, the next batter hit to the third baseman, who instead of cutting down the runner at the plate, made a late throw to first giving Dupo its winning run.

Madison couldn't score in the seventh.

Madison wacked nine hits to Dupo's six. Trojan hitters were: Irvin and Bunk with two each, Clinton and Wells with one each and Bob Scott with three including a double.

Clutch Single Gives
Braves 3-2 Victory
Over Grigsby JHS

A clutch single by Mel Stroud in the bottom of the seventh inning drove in the winning run as Coolidge junior high school baseball team squeaked past Grigsby Junior high 3 to 2 Tuesday night on the winners diamond.

The successful effort was started with two out when Dave Serich singled—Mike Willis ran for him and stole second before crossing the plate.

Both pitchers showed good control. Bob Wallace, the winner, gave up four hits and fanned eight batters, while his mound opponent, John Lengyel, was tagged for six hits while whiffing two.

The Grigsby Gators took a first inning lead as Randy Ganz singled and stole second. As Lengyel hit to the pitcher, Ganz was thrown out, but Lengyel was safe on a fielder's choice. He in turn stole second and was driven home by Jim Spiker.

In the fourth frame, the Coolidge Braves tied it as Mark Whitworth walked with two out and Wallace hit a long double for the RBI.

Coolidge scored again for a 2 to 1 lead in the fifth as Stroud walked and John Jennings tripled.

The Gators knotted it in the top of the seventh, Gary Lively singled and stole second. He was sacrificed to third by Randy Surdave and came across on a Brave error.

Maverick's any questions?

Measure it any way you like. By the crowds. The news stories. The sales. Few cars have caused a sensation like Maverick or broken so many records. Every day more and more people are asking questions about it. Here are the answers.

- Q. Why did you build the Maverick?
A. We think of Maverick as another one of Ford Motor Company's answers to the gold drain. How American cars who want small car economy don't have to send their U.S. dollars overseas.
- Q. Why did you call it Maverick?
A. You know what a maverick is. A maverick breaks the rules. A maverick is different. Maverick plays the big gap between the compacts and the imports. It has a wheelbase eight inches shorter than a '69 Falcon, eight and one-half inches longer than a VW 1500. Nothing else like it.
- Q. Why did you make it this size?
A. Maverick pinches pennies, not people. We gave Maverick more leg room. More shoulder room. More luggage room. Good example: the front seat of a Maverick offers you nine inches more shoulder room than the front seat of the leading economy import and its trunk can handle all the luggage for a family of four, including a set of golf clubs.
- Q. What do I get for the price?
A. You get your money's worth. A complete, built-for-Americans kind of car. Room. Hot styling. Cool-keyed interiors. Even the heater is included. Some economy car interiors are as good as luxurious as a park bench. Not Maverick's. You get plush seats. Cloth and vinyl upholstery with unique tartan panel inserts. You also get safety features like smart speed electric wipers. Safety belts. Heat restraints. Plus conveniences like armrests, coat hooks, lighted heater controls... important little things that add so much to your driving comfort.
- Q. What about options?
A. You can get 'em if you want 'em. You can order interior air conditioning. (It's built in, not hung on.) Other options include 3-speed automatic or low-cost semiautomatic transmission, and a hefty 200 CID Six. But lots of people won't put an extra cent into this car. Because it's all there. A complete car all ready to drive home.
- Q. What kind of gas mileage can I get?
A. That depends on you and your driving. You can get as much as 25 or 30 miles per gallon. If you have an educated toe and the right road conditions. If you have a lead foot, or do a lot of city driving, you will

- get a lot less. In tests by professional drivers at our tracks, where we do our best to duplicate actual driving conditions, Maverick averaged 22.8 mpg.
- Q. What kind of power does Maverick have?
A. Maverick's Six lets you loose 105 galloping horses. That's 52 more than you get in the 4-cylinder VW 1500. Maverick can cover 417 feet in ten seconds from a standing start. That means you can get up to highway speed in a hurry. When you enter a 70 mph turnpike, you won't feel like a retired bookkeeper thrust into the middle of a pro football game.
- Q. If it has an eight inch wheelbase than the leading import, does it still handle and park easy?
A. Maverick can U-turn in a tighter circle (55.6 feet) than the leading economy import (38.0 feet). Maverick can slant through traffic like a halfback. It can turn on a dime and give you nine cents change. If you've been driving any other American car, you'll find Maverick's neat size adds up to 5½ feet to any parking space.
- Q. Can Detroit really build a small economy car that's tough and long lasting?
A. It's not easy, but we did it. Maverick's unitized body construction makes it light, strong and durable. It's welded like a battleship. Rustproofing compound goes into deep crevices that never see the light of day. Then all that strength is covered with four coats of paint for lasting beauty. Result: one tough little car that's put together to stay together. (The service schedule in the Maverick owner's manual goes up to 100,000 miles or nine years; that ought to tell you something about its rugged durability.)
- Q. How about parts and service?
A. Maverick is designed to be unusually easy to service. You're dealing with made-in-America parts and 6,000 easy-to-find Ford Dealers. Fast repairs and easy replacements mean extra savings in both time and money.
- Q. Is Maverick really easier and less expensive to maintain than an economy import?
A. Definitely. Maverick oil changes come only every 6,000 miles and chassis lubrication only every 30,000 miles. The leading economy import recommends oil changes every 3,000 miles (twice as often as Maverick) and chassis lubrication every 6,000 miles (six times as often as Maverick). Those are

- just a few examples of the many ways Maverick lessens inconvenience and lowers operating cost.
- Q. Can I do my own maintenance work?
A. Yes, if you have an average amount of mechanical ability. The Maverick owner's manual contains 24 pages of detailed diagrams and easy-to-follow instructions for routine maintenance jobs you can do yourself. If you wish, you'll find it easy to change spark plugs, replace ignition points... plus many other do-it-yourself repairs and replacements.
- Q. Can a small car incorporate the latest advances in engineering. Maverick's brakes are as big as a standard compact—designed to stop cars weighing hundreds of pounds more. Maverick gives you weight... power... stability. Designed for American driving conditions.
- Q. How does Maverick ride?
A. Here's where Maverick's longer, wider stance really pays off. You get a smoother, quieter ride. Maverick's light, strong, unitized body helps eliminate squeaks and rattles. Special insulation blocks out road noise. The people who brought you a Ford that was quieter than a Rolls-Royce are giving you a small car that doesn't sound like a power mower.
- Q. Is there an advantage in the fact that Maverick is really a 1970 car?
A. Slowly depreciation is one money-in-the-pocket advantage. Maverick's 1970 model designation means it keeps its trade-in value higher, longer. (Maverick is built to be a good investment from the minute you buy it to the minute you sell it.) Better come take a look at this one. You'll find it where the action is... right where you get your great Ford values like specially equipped Ford Galaxie 500's... Fairlane's... Mustangs and Falcons. You'll find them at your Ford Dealer's... the place you've got to go to see what's going on.

For an authentic 1975 scale model of the new Ford Maverick, send $1.00 to: Maverick, P.O. Box 5397, Department 2F-15, Detroit, Michigan 48211. (Offer ends July 31, 1969.)

Rapid Transit Standards Set By E-W Gateway

A set of standards for a metropolitan area rapid transit system which will help planners determine whether a fixed system operating on its own right-of-way is feasible throughout the area was adopted by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council in a meeting yesterday.

A fixed rapid transit system could involve use of subways, monorails and railway commuter lines. The council noted in discussing plans to decide within the next month whether such a system is feasible.

The Gateway Council members also will consider whether a flexible system operating on existing right-of-way, such as a bus system using special expressway lanes, is feasible, or whether a combination of both the fixed and flexible systems would work.

Under the rules adopted by the council yesterday a fixed rapid transit system would be regional in scope with mostly electric vehicles that would operate at an average speed of 40 miles per hour. Stations would be near major roads or streets less than a mile apart and rush hour service at least every 90 seconds. The system would be underground in downtown East St. Louis, Clayton and East St. Louis.

The council turned down a request from the Bi-State Development Agency that the meeting dates of the council be changed to allow for a vote on the matter.

City Hopes to Use Sewer Surplus For Repair Cost

Possible use of surplus funds from the original Namodick sanitary sewer construction fund for repairs to breaks in the sewer lines was suggested during Monday night's council meeting by Mayor Farney.

He stressed that additional sources of revenue will be necessary to pay for the projects, and that it might be necessary also to work out an arrangement with developers who install sewer trunk lines in new subdivisions along which breaks might be occurring.

The finance in the original project construction fund last month amounted to $19,252, and in the special sewer construction fund, the balance was $22,054.

At present the city is borrowing from its working fund to meet the repair expenses. The working cash fund must be reimbursed when new trunks are received.

City officials are planning to meet again this evening with the Granite City Housing Authority Board to discuss installation of storm sewer lines within the Kirkpatrick Homes project. The housing board is planning to discuss the project, while the city wants easements alongside the streets to save the estimated $20,000 expense of cutting and replacing the concrete streets.

After the meeting, the council to a break in the concrete bed of the new drainage ditch. Project Engineer Mervin Grant said the contractor was aware of the condition and would make repairs.

The city was advised by the State City Planning Water Board of its approval of a sanitary sewer line extension in Wilson Park Estates Subdivision.

Levee Board in Move to Collect E. St. Louis Fees

The East Side Levee and Sanitary District board of trustees refused to consider yesterday a request by the city of East St. Louis for a permit to make a special sewer connection, and said it would not even discuss the request until East St. Louis makes arrangements to pay a large sum of sewer rental fees which it owes the levee district.

The money is due for sewage treatment rental fees collected by East St. Louis from 2266 sewer users on city-owned sanitary sewers that connect with the levee district's main line to the Lansdowne Sewage Treatment plant, built and operated by the levee district. The plant has been in operation 18 months, but the city of East St. Louis began collecting rental fees a year in advance of completion of the treatment system.

The levee board did approve, however, an offer by East St. Louis, advanced several months ago, to pay the levee district $266 a month for each of the 2266 users from which the city has collected $1 per month for the past several years. The 92-cent offer was accepted, levee board members said, as a basis for settling the district's claim against the city. The 8-cent difference on each $1 would be retained by the city for its cost of collection.

City Owes $37,512

Admiral Kraemer, chief engineer of the levee district, pointed out that the city therefore owes the levee district $266 per month for an 18-month period, or a total of $37,512, plus whatever the city collected in advance of completion of the treatment plant.

Levee district officials said East St. Louis has turned over none of the money it has collected since the treatment plant went into operation.

The city request for permission to connect with the levee district's main sanitary sewer line to the treatment plant involves a plan under which the city would install an interceptor along the line and pump from the levee district line a quantity of sewage equal to that charged into the line by the East St. Louis users. In this way the city would pay no fee since it would be treating sewage at its own treatment plant in volume equivalent to that flowing into the levee line from present city connections.

The levee board yesterday also took under advisement a proposal by officials of the Illinois State Conservation Department to construct a connecting channel between Lakes Two and Three of Frank Holtz State Park (formerly Grand Marais park) at East St. Louis, to permit drainage of impounded surface waters in the lake areas. The channel also would permit increased drainage from Harding Ditch which serves a large area of St. Clair county.

State Presents Proposal

Robert O. Pohl, assistant director of the conservation department, and Carl Thunman, chief engineer of the department, presented the proposal as an emergency project which they said is necessary to avert serious flooding of the park and residential areas around it.

They pointed out that a channel that once connected the two lakes has silted completely, preventing drainage from Harding ditch from reaching Lake No. 3, from which the water drains into a ditch along Route 157 and thence to the levee district pumping station on the river.

Thunman told the board that the state would pay a $50 share of the cost of reconstructing 1500 feet of the old ditch at a total cost of about $15,000, and would pay 25% of the cost of building 500 feet of a new drainage ditch, also estimated at about $15,000.

No Funds Available

Thus the levee district would be required to put up about $20,000. William "Mike" Ebersold, Madison county member of the board, pointed out that the district has no appropriation for such a project and said he believed such work would have to await next year's budget, which would not be drawn until next January.

Pohl and Thunman explained the "emergency" nature of the project and said it might be possible to work out a plan under which the state could do the work and the levee district reimburse the state for its share next year. Further meetings are to be held on the proposal.

The board approved April claims amounting to $26,519 and an April payroll of $66,422, which is about $20,000 higher than average. Board officials said the extra wages involved overtime pumping hours throughout most of the month because of high water through out the district.

The board adjourned until Wednesday, May 21.

Speakers will include Mrs. Della Albaugh, former teacher at Nameoki school; Gene Sternberg, president of Optimists International; and B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools. Rev. James R. The dinner is to be held next Wednesday, in the cafeteria at Granite City senior high at 6:30-8:30 p.m. Tickets are still available, but none will be sold after Monday.

'Light-A-Bike' Safety Program Set for Saturday

A "Lite-A-Bike" safety program for young Granite City bicyclists will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at McDonald's restaurant, 1515 Johnson road. The project will be co-sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 1300, and the drive-in restaurant management.

Children taking bicycles to the drive-in Saturday will have two reflector stickers attached to it by a VFW member. Additionally, the youngster will receive a gift certificate for a free hamburger, French fries and soft drink or milk shake at McDonald's.

John Moran, Greg Henn and Alan Charbonnier, bike safety program co-chairmen for the VFW, noted the reflector strips enable motorists to see youthful bike riders more clearly when the tape glows in headlight beams or from street lights.

Similar bike safety programs have been conducted in the community, usually on school playgrounds, Moran said. He pointed out that combined sponsorship of the program by McDonald's and the VFW started in Phoenix, Ariz., where it proved highly successful.

"Any child bringing his or her bicycle to the drive-in will have the reflector stickers attached and receive the free gift certificate," Moran said.

City Transfers $50,000 for Sewer Break Repairs

An emergency fund transfer resolution to take $50,000 from the working cash fund for maintenance of sewers was approved Monday night by Granite City council members. The money is to be replaced in the working cash fund when new taxes are collected.

On a $60,783 bill list also approved by the council, was the amount of $48,286 for sewer repair work in the 2500 blocks of Waterman and Lynch avenues, at the Nameoki school grounds, at Wayne and St. Clair avenues and at 3100 East 23rd street.

Other major items on the bill list were $1678 paid to East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. for hydrant rental in April; $3800 to Illinois Power Co. for street and alley lighting in April; and $4733 to the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund for employee retirement.

The council approved the payroll for the first half of May totaling $50,081 and sick leave for the last half of April amounting to $867.

With the changeover Monday night to the new council, and Alderman Fry leaving the council,

Services Held Wednesday For Mrs. Koenig, 79

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday from a Collinsville funeral home chapel for Mrs. Helen Marie Koenig, nee Plassman, 79, who died at 7:20 a.m. Monday at Belleville Memorial Hospital. Rev. C. H. Kuhlmann, retired pastor of St. John United Church of Christ in Collinsville, officiated. Burial took place in St. John Cemetery, Collinsville.

Survivors include her husband, Milton Koenig; four nephews, Rev. Edward Friesen, Linsford, Ill., Walter and Le Roy Plassman both of Centralia, Ill., and a niece Mrs. Ruth Jaeger of Germany.

Mayor Partney suggested the new Finance committee take up salary negotiations with unions representing city employees.

Alderman Boyd, a member of that committee, recommended the mayor appoint a new negotiating committee, and the council approved his request. The special committee will be named as quickly as possible, the mayor told the council.

Other members of the former negotiating committee were Aldermen Moerlen and Dawes.

'La Boheme' to be Presented By FAME-East Here May 17

FAME-East, the Illinois affiliate of the Friends of Artistic and Musical Endeavors, will present a special performance in Granite City at the Niedringhaus United Methodist Church on Saturday, May 17, at 8 p.m.

A widely diversified program has been arranged to best present to the local audience, a composite of the total artistic scope of FAME. Highlighting the program will be the opera company performing a special capsule version of Puccini's "La Boheme"—in English.

Also featured on the program will be the newly-formed FAME Youth Ballet Co. making their performance debut in a 20-minute ballet, "Sylvia." The evening's entertainment will also feature the FAME concert debut of a gifted Granite City pianist, Mrs. Cathy French. Mrs. French, mother of five young children, has studied with Clayton Henderson of SIU-SW campus and in addition to her concert numbers, will accompany "La Boheme."

Several other well-known Granite City artists to appear in the production are—Mrs. June Nightingale Branding, who will sing the lead role of "Mimi," Mrs. Nita Dale, a lyric soprano, in the role of "Musetta," and Stanley Coleman, who will sing a dual role that of "Alcindoro" and "Coline."

Other participating artists are Boyd Seyer of Wood River and Robert J. Childers of Godfrey.

Tickets for the performance are $2 and can be obtained in advance from cast members or at Fornasewski Music Store, Stanley's Beauty Shop and at the door the evening of the performance.

Dr. Bufford to Speak At TB Annual Dinner

Dr. John Lester Buford, noted education consultant and lecturer, will be principal speaker for the 33rd annual membership dinner meeting of Madison County Tuberculosis Association, William H. Dorsey, association president announced. The meeting will be held at Stratford Hotel, Alton, on Monday at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Buford, who hails from Mt. Vernon, Ill., where he served as superintendent of schools for 27 years, will pose the question, "Do Your People Know?" Described as "One of Education's Most Eloquent Voices."

Other features of the TB Association's meeting will include election of directors and officers, presentation of awards to volunteers, and distribution of annual reports.

Propose Program To Resolve U.S. Highway 'Freeze'

A job training program under which the disadvantaged unemployed in the Madison-St. Clair county area would be hired by craft unions was presented to Illinois Governor Richard J. Ogilvie at Springfield Tuesday by a task force group which is attempting to eliminate a federal freeze on highway construction funds in the two-county area.

The proposal was outlined by the Task Force East Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of Metropolitan St. Louis which seeks the governor's aid in obtaining endorsement of the program by the Illinois State Department of Labor. Six members of the task force group meeting with the governor included Nicholas P. Veeder, board chairman of Granite City Steel Co., and Chancellor John S. Rendleman of Southern Illinois University-Southwest campus.

Development of the program followed a series of meetings between Illinois highway officials, labor representatives and others interested in resolving the freeze. The freeze, which cost the Madison-St. Clair county area $30 millions in highway construction work last year, was ordered by federal highway officials because of alleged discrimination by labor unions in hiring Negroes on highway jobs.

Would Implement Program Southern Illinois University Southwest campus has been conducting a Manpower Development Training program for five years and could immediately accept 96 men for pre-apprenticeship training in basic construction skills to qualify them for union membership if the program is accepted, according to Rendleman.

He said SIU-SW is prepared to implement the program if it is certified by the state labor department. State acceptance would allow funding by the U. S. Department of Labor, with training receiving $46 per week. Gov. Ogilvie said he would take up the matter with the state labor department and investigate the program. He said he hopes the program of the federal freeze can be resolved soon.

Madison Policeman To Take Course

Charles J. Bridick, 723 Lee avenue, Madison, is among 35 law enforcement officers enrolled in a four-week basic police training course at Southern Illinois University - Carbondale campus. Bridick is a patrolman on the Madison police department. The course is conducted by the SIU Division of Technical and Adult Education under certification by the Illinois Local Government Law Enforcement Officers training board.

The officers receive 160 hours of instruction in the course with the university faculty augmented by personnel from the Illinois State Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation and the U. S. Treasury Department.

Summer Camp for Boys, Girls Planned by YMCA

A summer YMCA camp will again be available to boys and girls of the area, according to Charles, youth director of the Tri-City Area YMCA.

Hasse, who will direct the camp, indicated that the camp is a cooperative venture for the YMCA's of Alton, Edwardsville, East St. Louis, Belleville and Tri-City. The five Y's which form the Metro-East Association of YMCA's have leased the Methodist camp on Little Grassy lake near Carbondale.

This will be the second year that the Metro-East Y's have sponsored the camp. The facilities include cabin space for 110 youngsters, a modern lodge and dining hall, 260 feet of waterfront and 115 acres of wooded, rolling countryside. Water and sanitary facilities have been inspected and approved by the Illinois Department of Health.

Campers will have a choice of two periods Aug. 2-9, or Aug. 10-16. The fee will be $42 for one period or $82 for both periods. Enrollment will be limited to boys and girls beginning with those who completed the third grade (or who are nine years of age) on May 1 and up to and including those who have completed the eighth grade. There are no residence restrictions or requirements.

Those interested in registering for the camp are asked to contact their nearest YMCA.

Hasse also stated that the camp program will be the following type program which the YMCA has used since it introduced youth camping in 1882. The "Y" school will offer each camper some activities with the whole camp group, some activities with his own sectional group, and enough properly directed free time so that he is able to pursue his special interest.

Boating, swimming, lessons, life-saving, fishing, crafts, archery, nature lore, canoeing, horseback riding and hiking will be featured. Hasse pointed out that the aim of the camp is not just recreational, but emphasis will also be placed on providing an experience in democratic living coupled with a spiritual experience.

The Christian approach to living is that which makes the Y camping program something special, Hasse explained. Youngsters are reminded that they may earn part or all of their way to camp by selling their way to camp. The local "Y" will offer a cookie sale May 16-June 7. More details are available at the "Y."

GCHS Graduating Class Schedule

A full schedule of activities for the graduating seniors at Granite City high school will begin on Tuesday, May 13, with the "Senior Girls Tea," hosted by the Home Economics department. At 6:30 p.m. the same day, a dress rehearsal of the May Day program will take place in preparation for the main event on Wednesday, May 14, and two evening performances next Thursday and Friday evenings, in the presence of the Queen and her court of senior girls. Recognition Day is to be observed on Wednesday, May 14, at a school assembly, when the valedictorian and salutatorian, representative boys and girls are announced as well as sports and scholastic awards are presented.

Each year the senior class, both boys and girl, attend school on "Racky Day" wearing the most outlandish clothing and will be conducted on Monday, May 19.

The GAA awards are to be announced on Wednesday, May 21, through the physical education department, under the direction of Miss Barbara Kersch. On Thursday, May 22, all seniors will attend a banquet to be given in their honor.

To conclude the month of activities baccalaureate will take place on Sunday, May 25, and a graduation ceremony on Thursday, May 29.

Miss Evans to Attend College Bound Program

Sandra Evans, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans of 2672 Highway 67, and a sophomore at Granite City high school will attend for the second summer the Project College Bound program according to an announcement made by Eastern Illinois Development and Services Unit.

Students accepted will spend from July 6-19 on the Eastern Illinois University campus. They will live in a dormitory, and during the morning will observe EIU college classes in a department which they think they will choose as a college major.

During the afternoons, they will select from 16 specially organized College Bound classes. Sports activities, social and recreational activities will be available in the evening. This is the second year of operation for this program designed for students to have the opportunity to have intellectual and social experiences in a campus setting.

Shakespeare Play to Be Staged at SIU-SW

Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will open at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus May 14 in the Communications building theater and continue through May 17. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

In addition to the evening performance a 2:15 p.m. matinee of the University Theater production will be given May 17. There is no admission charge, according to Prof. Lynn Kluth, University Theater director, but tickets should be reserved in advance by calling (618) 692-2771. Reserved tickets not picked up by 8:10 the night of the performance will be released to waiting non-ticket holders, Kluth said.

Considered by many critics to be the most carefully plotted and expertly written of Shakespeare's romantic "golden comedies," "Twelfth Night" was first performed in 1601 for the court of Elizabeth I.

Playing the roles of Orsino and Olivia are Lance Stelzlen of Carbondale and Debbie Decker, East Alton.

Anne Zimmer of Granite City is cast as the vivacious Viola; John Phillips, Belleville, plays the part of the drunken Tony Belch; Kirk Hard, Hartford, the role of the oily Malvolio; and Lynda Wylder, Wood River, the wily Maria.

Among the articles in the constitution is the call for establishment of a University Senate, comprised of both students and faculty members, as the principal legislative body on the campus.

At present, there are separate governmental units for faculty and students at Illinois State, both of which are advisory to the president.

400 Boy Scouts Attend Uniwah Spring Camporee

About 400 Boy Scouts and scouters attended the Uniwah District spring camporee that ended this week at Fort Kaskaskia State Park.

With the units camped on the bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River, the scouts took advantage of the historical landmarks by visiting the area where the fort was once located, the Garrison Cemetery where early inhabitants were buried, and the home of Pierre Menard, the first lieutenant governor of Illinois.

Scout rank advancement was strongly encouraged on the troop level, according to John Pekarik, district activities chairman.

Three competitive activities were performed on a patrol basis on Saturday.

"In the pancake frying event, the patrol made a fire, cooked pancakes, flipped them while running a certain distance, and then the entire patrol had to eat it," Pekarik said.

In the "Through Alligator Pie" event, the patrol led a scout, while riding an A frame, through the simulated alligator pit.

For nature identification, the patrol was required to identify five plants or trees. A camp inspection was held to see how well the campsite was set up.

"The highlight of the entire camporee was the campfire, according to Pekarik. "At this time all the scouts showed their true scouting spirit through skits, songs and yells."

Without the aid of Bob Burns, campfire director and scoutmaster of United Presbyterian Church Troop 8, the campfire could not have been possible," Pekarik said.

"Most of the credit must be given to the camporee staff," according to Wilbur Irelan, assistant district scout executive. "With their assistance, the camporee was kept on a very high scouting spirit," he said.

He cited Russ Knight and Ed Lurton, camporee registrars; Fred Hacke, camporee advisor; Pekarik; Frank Kuma, campmaster; Oliver Gilmore, neighborhood commissioner; Glen Hommert, commissioner; Dave Parish, camp chairman; and Jerry Sizemore, camp committeeman.

Also serving the spring camporee in various capacities were Wilbur Shelton, advisor of Post 12 sponsored by the Niedringhaus school PTA; Henry Rulrich, advisor of Post 94, sponsored by the Granite City Steel Management Club; and Ray Gaudette, advisor of Post 96, sponsored by the Maryville school PTA.

Survey Favors Teen Town at Pontoon Beach

An overwhelming 854 "yes" votes to only six "no" votes were cast in support of Pontoon Beach Teen Town by local residents submitting ballots at 14 widely-separated polling stations in Pontoon Beach, Nameoki and Granite City last weekend.

Mrs. Leigh Watson, senior advisor for the Pontoon Beach youth program said this week that the immensely favorable response by citizens has encouraged the young people and their adult counselors to continue programming weekly dances and other events for area youth.

Those casting ballots Saturday and Sunday were asked to complete a questionnaire, stating whether the Teen Town program should be continued. Merle of the teenage program and value of its continuation have been the subject of speculation which prompted the group to conduct the survey to gauge the amount of community support.

One person commented on a ballot that the Teen Town program "is the greatest ever," while among the six dissenting votes, one bore the notation, "too rough," Mrs. Watson said.

In addition to the 960 ballots, the judges found $1.15 in coins in the ballot boxes, she added.

Polling stations were manned by about 40 teenagers outside business firms in Pontoon Beach, the suburban shopping centers and in downtown Granite City.

The counselor reported that 125 young people attended last Friday evening's dance at Long Lake fireman's hall, with Teen Town members earning $120 from the event.

Proceeds from the dances are added to a special bank account at the First National Bank in Madison and may be used at a future date to erect a teen town building in the Pontoon Beach area, Mrs. Watson said.

Mrs. Jo Meyer to Aid Area-wide 4-H Girls

Mrs. Jo Meyer, home economist with the local Illinois Power Co. office, will be in charge of training all 4-H girls who will attend four planned sessions on electricity. A meeting on Wednesday, May 14, at 7:30 p.m. will take place at the local power company office.

Other scheduled meetings are in Highland town, Edwardsville, May 12 and in Bethalto, May 23.

Using electricity wisely will be the theme of the meetings held in Madison County. The electric activity is sponsored by the Illinois Farm Electrification Council which is made up of the power suppliers in Illinois working with the Co-operative Extension Service.

The committee's objectives center around a program of lending assistance in teaching incentives and promotions. A special award is being arranged for all co-operators participating in the program in 1969.

Mrs. Meyer will be demonstrating the use of portable appliances, the particular phase of emphasis this year, according to Mrs. Mary Knecht, association extension adviser, who is working with Mrs. Meyer on places and arrangements.

Members will attend the Concordia Lutheran Church on Sunday in honor of Sweetest Day. A breakfast-meeting is to be held after the service, with the location to be announced by church chairman Brad Cross.

The club is continuing its campaign for used articles for clothing and supplies to be forwarded to a Vietnamese leprosy project. The collection point is the home of Mike Wilcox, 2332 Clark avenue, project chairman. The mailing date has been set for the last of the month.

Mike Loftus, first director, announced that names of prospective new members are being accepted. A get-together of prospective pledges is to be held at the home of Frank Mellich, Rural Route One. Committees were formed for the fifth annual Roca show to be held in July.

ISES Seeking Summer Jobs for Area Youths

Job orders for the 1968 drive for summer jobs for youths of 16 to 21 for the Quad-City area are coming in earlier than in previous years in response to the April 15 appeal by Gov. Ogilvie, according to Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the local Illinois State Employment Service office.

He said there will be more youthful job applicants than jobs and called upon local employers, large and small, to list their job openings with his office.

He said that all regular jobs in offices, stores and factories would be welcome, whether for several or for a single opening, as well as for youths to mow a lawn to lend a hand elsewhere in the home or other establishment.

Accompanying the students are Band Director and Mrs. Louis Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Parker, Mrs. Joseph Miller, Mrs. Irvin Nicol, Mrs. Homer Tharau, Mrs. John Moske and Joseph Owens, assistant band director.

At 9:45 a.m. today, the local high school music students performed a concert at Citronelle high school, Citronelle, Ala., and this afternoon plan a tour of Fort Gaines and Dauphin Island.

Friday's itinerary includes a tour of the Pensacola Naval Base, lunch at the base cafeteria, a shopping trip in Pensacola and beach swimming in the Gulf of Mexico.

The group will spend part of Saturday in Mobile and return to Granite City at 7 a.m. Sunday.

SIU Students with 3500 Work Hours Gain Honors

One hundred students at Southern Illinois University-Carbondale campus who have worked 3500 hours or more during their college careers in the SIU self-help student work program will be honored at a banquet May 12.

The work program, administered by the SIU Student Work and Financial Assistance office, provides part-time employment for as many as 4000 Carbondale students at any given time, or up to 10,000 different students in the course of a whole year due to turnover.

It is unusual for a student to work as many as 3500 hours in four years, according to Frank C. Adams, director of the student work office. Most student workers put in not more than 80 hours per month and in order to complete a total of 3500 hours the student must be willing to work considerably more than this, Adams said.

All student employees must be enrolled on a full-time basis and are required to maintain a grade average of at least 3.0, which equals a "C".

"Studies at SIU and other universities have shown," Adams

Summer Garbage Pickup in GC May Be Once-a-Week

A study is being made to determine the amount of savings to the city if garbage and trash collections are limited to once a week during summer months in Granite City.

Milam Corp. East, contractor for the job, presented a proposal to the city council Monday night stating there would be a savings if the usual twice-a-week collections are eliminated during June, July and August. No amount of savings was specified.

Authorization was given to the new Sanitation committee and the mayor to meet with Stanley Letner, general manager of the firm, and make a recommendation to the council at the next regular meeting on May 19. On the sanitation committee are Aldermen Dallas, Nann and Robertson.

In miscellaneous business, the council approved installation of stop signs on Henry street at Sheridan avenue and authorized preparation of an ordinance to place stop signs at East 24th and August streets.

A proposal for a city project to construct sidewalk sections along the west side of Nameoki road from Kirkpatrick Homes to Iowa street was withdrawn for immediate action since the construction would have to be budgeted.

Gas Station-Car Wash. Referred to the City Plan Commission was a request by Stephen Powers of Collinsville for a special use permit to operate a service station and car wash at 4012 Nameoki road. Placed on file was a letter

21 Mirrors Knocked Off

A vandau used a soda bottle to knock off the side view mirrors of 21 autos at the Brewer Motor Co., 2165 Madison avenue, it was reported Monday. Radio aeriels also were torn from three cars.

Auto Window Damaged

James Mathis, 2568 Boyle avenue, reported at 3:10 p.m. Monday that a window of his auto was pried upon and forced off the track while the car was parked in his driveway.

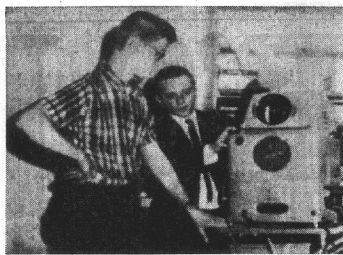

from Assistant City Atty. Harry Hartman, pointing out he has filed post-trial motions in a suit that resulted in a $23,500 judgment against the city and may call upon the council to determine if an appeal is to be filed.

The judgment was awarded to Louis Smith, $21,000, and Ernest Smith, $1,500, as a result of an accident Dec. 26, 1965, at 19th and Adams streets where the stop sign controlling northbound traffic on Adams was missing for five days.

City Inspector Jack Fricker was instructed to contact the real estate firm owning property at 2017 and 2019 Park avenue where children are causing damage and derelict autos are being abandoned. Alderman Dallas said the firm should be advised to repair the structures for rental or tear down and clear the sites.

On the advice of City Atty. Scroggins, the city is to pay $52 to Joseph Postor for damage to a window at 1904 State street while sidewalk repairs were being made by a street department crew.

GC Man is Specialist in Audio-Visual Media Field

Gary Geroff, a full-time history teacher at the Collinsville high school, is also the district's audio-visual media specialist to provide the teachers with transparencies, posters, mountings, displays, tapes and tape duplications for classroom use.

The program formerly was supervised by the school library staff. This year the program has been expanded under the direction of Geroff, and he plans to add more equipment in the photographic area in the future and hopes that some day such services as closed circuit TV will be available for classroom use.

He is assisted in this program by 12 volunteer students who schedule equipment and materials, perform minor repairs on the equipment, produce materials, conduct inventories, catalog and type. Students must have at least a 3.2 grade average to assist with the program and they deliver and operate equipment for the teachers.

Geroff is a graduate of the Granite City high school and Southern Illinois University. He makes his home at 2433 Edison avenue and is the son of Dr. Val Geroff and Mrs. Dorcy Geroff both of Granite City.

Scott Rules on Taxing Question

Personal property of an express or transportation company shall be listed and taxed in the taxing district where the property usually is kept, Attorney General William J. Scott ruled in an opinion for St. Clair county, his office reported yesterday.

This means, Scott ruled, that the property of foreign corporations maintaining a general office in St. Clair county, which operates no terminals and which does not garage its vehicles in that county, cannot be assessed and taxed in that county.

In another ruling, Attorney General Scott ruled that a $15 fee is the proper charge for filing a petition for a tax deed with the circuit clerk. The fee is provided by statute, he said.

In still another ruling, the attorney general ruled that the boundaries of a soil or water conservation district are not changed where incorporated and unincorporated areas have developed since the district was organized, Illinois statutes contain no higher court decisions on this question and therefore there is no specific answer.

Other jurisdictions, however, hold that a city charter extending the limits of a city into the territory of a contiguous district does not affect the boundaries of the district.

Cyril Reuterman, 71, Retired GC Businessman, Dies

Cyril (Cy) Reuterman, 71, of 2001 Grand avenue, a well-known Quad-City resident and businessman, died Monday at McMillan Hospital in St. Louis of cancer. He had been hospitalized the second time for two months.

Mr. Reuterman had been the Chrysler-Plymouth dealer located at 20th street and Grand avenue. He retired ten years ago. Born in Belleville, he had made his home in the Quad-City area for 50 years.

Survivors include a daughter, Miss Jean Reuterman of Pevely, Mo.; two brothers, Valentine Reuterman, Belleville and Francis Reuterman, Pevely, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Corrine Klapp, St. Louis, and Miss Aurea Reuterman, San Antonio, Tex.

A 10 a.m. Requiem High Mass was conducted today at St. Peter's Cathedral in Belleville. Interment was at Green Mount Catholic Cemetery, Belleville.

A marriage license was issued by Deputy Clerk Elvira Thurber to Richard A. Rogers and Jo Kessler, both of Granite City.

New Seating, Roll Call Line-Up for Council

A new seating arrangement and a new line-up for roll call votes were introduced during Monday night's Granite City council session with the three newly-elected aldermen taking their seats.

The transition went smoothly with much handshaking and welcoming for Everett Morlen of the First Ward, Paul Schuler of the Sixth Ward and Thomas Boker of the Seventh Ward.

But — there was a little confusion on the roll calls, because of the similarity of names — Morlen and Moerlen. At one point, City Clerk Penlidon had to resort to using Morlen's nickname of "Cherry Picker."

Under the new seniority arrangement for roll call the line-up is — Nann, Rutledge, Whitmer, Basarich, Boyd, Dallas, Moerlen, Parmley, Robertson, Poulos, Green, Dawes, Jarrett, Boker, Morlen and Schuler. Nann is beginning his 27th year on the council.

Of the three retiring aldermen — Bartosiak, Fry and Johnson — only Johnson was present. Johnson escorted Boker to his seat, while Parmley escorted Schuler and Dallas escorted Morlen.

No action was taken on determining the two aldermen-at-large. The council presently has three aldermen in the Second Ward and three in the Fifth as a result of redistricting from eight to seven wards. The trio in the Second Ward are Rutledge, Whitmer and Jarrett, and in the Fifth Ward, Nann, Moerlen and Basarich.

Bringing the river for the benefit of the entire two-state metropolitan area, the Mississippi River Festival is now on the campus of Southern University-Southwestern beginning June 1. The festival communities together from the two states with a spectacular line-up of entertainment. Festival organizers are planning to have six weeks of concerts by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra and performances by the country's top rock, pop and folk artists. The Festival was organized last year by the St. Louis Symphony Society and has received wide-spread media attention from cultural and business groups. Festival books for the Mississippi River Festival are now on sale throughout the St. Louis area and are available including the Quad-Cities. According to Ernest A. Karandak, festival director, "The festival is a very flexible type of per-

The local area co-chairmen announced today that Festival coupon books may be purchased at the four Quad-City banks — Granite City Trust & Savings Bank; First Granite City National Bank; American National Bank; and First National Bank in Madison.

About 150 letters providing Festival information also are going out this week to members of the business community and individual Quad-City families, Mrs. Eftimoff advised.

Arrangements are well under way at the SIU-SW campus to develop a Festival site of exceptional physical beauty and to provide conveniences for the thousands of concert goers expected to attend.

The site selected consists of 18.25 acres of a gently rolling grassy, wooded tract which provides a natural amphitheatre configuration. The area in the northwest corner of SIU-SW's 2600-acre campus, has been used previously as a location for commencement exercises.

A large white tent, 140 feet by 170 feet and 50 feet high, will be situated at the lower end of the natural amphitheater. The tent will be covered with canvas and custom-made acoustic shell and will provide covered seating for 1850 people in canvas captain's chairs. Chairs will be located to correspond with various ticket classes. The tent will have a parking area of 10.1 acres and will permit accommodation of approximately 3500 cars or 13000 people. The site is a flat grassy land east of Lewisville Road, service to the festival will be provided by a shuttle bus to feed up to 1500 people prior to a concert. Two buffet and two snack bar lines are planned.

The St. Louis Symphony concerts, conducted by Walter Scharoun, will be held on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday evenings.

A legislative measure appropriating $425,000 for the Blount State Transit System was approved by the Illinois House without opposition Monday and sent to the Senate. The bill was approved 148 to 0.

The grant is to be used to match funds in an attempt to obtain a $2.5 federal grant to help finance a projected $4 million increase in the budget for the system in the Illinois portion of the metropolitan St. Louis area. Including Madison, St. Clair and Monroe county.

The proposal is at that position for a committee hearing two weeks ago. At the time Col. R. E. Smyser, executive director of the Bi-State Development Agency, said that the funds will be sought under the Federal Urban Mass Transportation Act of 1964.

A companion bill providing an appropriation of $200,000 to be expended by 1967, earlier and now is before the Senate. Those funds are for school transportation aid as reimbursement for the difference between actual costs and those paid by school students.

Experts in the field of education, conservation, air pollution, tree and plant growth, lawn care, and horticulture are authorities on roses, orchids and dried materials, will be participating in the Horticulture-Flower Show on Sunday, May 18, at the Wilson Park Rink-Recreation Center.

The show is open to the public for entries as well as to members of local garden clubs. The layout of displays and booths at the rink will feature a nucleus section devoted to consultants and hobbyists, centered with representatives from state departments of Illinois.

These informational booths will be manned by the following: Wayne Siedler of the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service is an expert on lawns and ornamental trees and shrubs. He will give advice on home grounds management, weed and insect control, fertilization and growth of lawns and trees.

Area Accident Rate Jumps 17% over Same '68 Period

The Quad-City area accident rate during the first four months of this year has increased 17% over that of the same period a year ago and 58% over the rate of the same four-month period in 1967, a study of traffic statistics revealed today.

During the four-month period this year, however, the number of injury cases resulting from traffic mishaps increased only slightly over the comparable period of 1968, but were a rise of 23% over the 1967 rate at the same time of the year.

A total of 241 accidents involving injury of 125 persons occurred during April, an increase of 15 accidents and 17 injuries over the 226 mishaps and 108 injury cases reported in March, reports showed.

These figures brought to 884 the total number of accidents in the Quad-Cities during January, February, March and April, and to 431 the total number of persons injured in those accidents.

In April 1968 a total of 155 accidents with 106 injuries were reported, bringing the four-month total for that year to 753 accidents and 416 injuries. During the previous year of 1967, however, only 571 accidents involving 350 injuries were reported.

Carpenter Apprentice Competition Begins

Thomas Lewis of Edwardsville and Jack Hert of Wood River are representing the Carpenters District Council of Madison County and vicinity at the state level annual contest for apprentice carpenters in Belleville today and Friday.

Each man will be provided with tools, plans and materials to construct an assigned project. The contestant will not be told of his project until it is assigned. He will compete against fellow craftsmen and be judged on elapsed time and skill.

This phase of the Carpenters Apprenticeship Week activity is open to the public and will be held at Augustine's in Belleville.

An awards dinner will be on Friday evening at Augustines when the winners in each of three categories will be named, and will represent Illinois in the International Carpenters Apprenticeship contest in Chicago later this year.

In his selection for the honor, CWO Gilmore was cited for his "patience, diligence and painstaking attention to detail in formulating and building the desired foundation for the future warrant officers under his direction." He began his duties as tactical officer for the First WOC Company at Fort Wolters in May 1968.

Three months earlier, as a helicopter pilot in Vietnam, the officer was shot down and injured. He was hospitalized at Cam Ranh Bay and then transferred to Denver, Colo. for convalescence. While in Vietnam, he was assigned to the 282nd Assault Helicopter Co.

CWO Gilmore entered active duty on Oct. 30, 1966. He received basic training at Fort Polk, La., and upon completion of flight training was commissioned late the following year. As tactical officer to warrant officer candidates, the service man noted that 60% to 70% of his time is devoted to counseling the youthful trainees, helping them develop not only into mature men but into leaders.

His parents-in-law are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Toundas, 180 Pontoon road.

Venice Police Dispose of 300 Derelect, Junk Cars

Operating under city ordinance permitting removal of junked or abandoned automobiles, the Venice police department has taken 300 derelict cars off the city's streets and vacant lots within nearly a year that the program has been under way, authorities reported today.

The program was launched, Police Chief John Eastington said, after a mounting number of complaints was received about old cars parked for long periods along street curbs and obvious "junk" autos abandoned in vacant lots or in back yards.

Police officials pointed out that owners of abandoned or junk autos, if it is possible to find them, are given every chance to dispose of the cars in their own way, but the police take action after a specified time if the owner fails to remove the cars.

The Venice city ordinance provides that any vehicle left parked on any street or other public place for a period of five consecutive days shall be construed as an abandoned vehicle and may be removed. It provides also that "no person shall abandon any vehicle within the city and no person shall leave any vehicle at any place within the city for such time and under such circumstances as to cause such vehicle reasonably to appear to have been abandoned."

Further aiding the removal program is a section of the ordinance that also make it illegal for a property owner to permit a discarded auto to remain on his property for more than ten days. The ordinance exempts vehicles in an enclosed building or one on the premises of a business enterprise operated in a lawful place and manner, when necessary to the operation of the business.

It further permits the police department to remove and impound any vehicle left at any place within the city which reasonably appears to be abandoned, lost, stolen or unclaimed.

Bonding Bid is OK'd For GC Tax Collector
Granite City will get its tax books shortly for preparation of 1969 tax bills. Council members opened bids Monday night for bonding City Treasurer E. R. "Pat" Rich, who also is township tax collector.

The low bid for a bond to cover $703,200 was in the amount of $1238, submitted by Gitchoff Agency. Other bidders were Miller-Wolf Agency, $1760, and Kaegel Agency, $1808. The bond was awarded to the Gitchoff Agency.

Last year, the premium on a bond covering a lesser amount was $3100. "It pays to advertise," several sidemen remarked.

No time limit is placed on removal of cars abandoned in certain locations. The ordinance says that the police department is authorized "to remove from the streets to the nearest public garage or any other appropriate place any vehicle left unattended on a bridge, viaduct or causeway, in any street or public way, if such vehicle is parked or placed as to obstruct traffic, block access to a fire hydrant, or constitute a danger."

While the potential cost of towing away such vehicles was considered a major problem when the program first was considered, Venice has been lucky in obtaining the cooperation of a metals dealer who has towed away the Venice cars without charge to the city, receiving only what he can get from the cars as scrap metal, the chief said.

Computer Looms Large in Next Half Century's Advances in Technology

"Toward the Year 2018," edited by the Foreign Policy Association, New York, Cowles Education Corporation. 177 pages, $3.95.

Reviewed by L. Ervin Atwood, a member of the faculty of the Department of Journalism, Southern Illinois University. (Review published in the Daily Egyptian, SIU Department of Journalism, Carbondale.)

This volume contains 13 articles that are "more amazing than fiction," according to a blurb on the dust jacket.

Well, not quite that amazing. Interesting, informative, speculative, yes, but hardly more amazing than fiction.

Nevertheless, the authors deserve some credit for attempting what is perhaps impossible—predicting the technological advances of the next 50 years.

Even more hazardous are the predictions of behavioral advances, although these are rather cautious, and perhaps for good reason.

Even the limited behavioral advances discussed are primarily technique oriented. No breakthrough in basic understanding, no new theory, is predicted.

Hopefully there will be an increased use of statistical data, and the computer will be utilized to develop and maintain gigantic data banks.

The chapter on educational technology talks of an electronic revolution but offers no real hope for solutions to fundamental human weakness.

All the predictions are for tremendous amounts of information almost instantaneously available, but no one offers any promise for intelligent, long-range human use of these data.

The computer will take on increasing amounts of what man today considers his "work," in return, the machine will force man to think even more clearly and intelligently—an activity that is sometimes not man's strongest ability.

Small portable computers will be available for individuals, new ways of organizing human knowledge will be made necessary by the flood of data that will be constantly increasing.

With a Friend Like This, the 'Filthy Rich' Are Not Going to Need Ememies

Republicans like to tax the poor and make it easy on the rich; right? Wrong, judging by the tax proposals sent to Congress last month by the administration.

President Nixon suggested slashing the income tax surcharge from 10% to 5% effective next Jan. 1. He also called for immediate repeal of the 7% investment tax credit under which big industry has modernized and expanded its facilities. And he urged a minimum tax for the very rich, who could no longer write off more than 50% of their income for tax purposes.

He noted, "Much concern has been expressed because of the cities with income of more than $200,000 pay no federal income taxes. These people are neither tax dodgers nor tax cheats. But where we can prevent it by law, we must not permit our wealthiest citizens to be 100% successful at tax avoidance."

"Nor should the government limit its tax reform only to apply to these relatively few extreme cases," he added, urging a "low income allowance" removing more than two million low-income families from the tax rolls now and assuring that persons with families living in poverty will pay no federal taxes.

His victory last November was hailed by some. Vietnam war opponents, who reasoned that with his strength among conservative voters he could carry out a war de-escalation that would be accepted by the public; a more liberal leader would have been called a traitor for doing the same thing, it was contended.

The same reasoning may apply in the field of tax reform. A further shift of the tax burden from the "haves" to the "have-nots" would be universally popular; after all, some of the "haves" don't have that much, and are shoudering heavy taxes as it is. But it may be palatable to a majority of the public, originating as it does in the party that has been condemned, and to an extent unfairly, since the 1930s depression as the "friend of the rich."

His victory last November was hailed by some. Vietnam war opponents, who reasoned that with his strength among conservative voters he could carry out a war de-escalation that would be accepted by the public; a more liberal leader would have been called a traitor for doing the same thing, it was contended.

The same reasoning may apply in the field of tax reform. A further shift of the tax burden from the "haves" to the "have-nots" would be universally popular; after all, some of the "haves" don't have that much, and are shoudering heavy taxes as it is. But it may be palatable to a majority of the public, originating as it does in the party that has been condemned, and to an extent unfairly, since the 1930s depression as the "friend of the rich."

Accelerated Efforts in May, June to Complete Trials on Felony Charges

Madison county's performance in carrying out the court procedures necessary to punish crime has been far superior to many counties. There has been a number of jury convictions in recent months. But no perfection has been attained, and Chief Circuit Judge Clark is right in scheduling an intensified effort in May and June to conclude the 134 pending felony cases.

He accurately says that "one of the problems is to eliminate the delay from the time of arrest until the time of the trial. The more time that elapses, the more the public confidence in our system wanes." And, we add, the more opportunity for repeat crimes by an individual—a factor that has led to serious consideration in the U. S. of some form of "preventive detention" to account for a big portion of the overall crime picture.

With adequate effort by the state's attorney and judges—both of which have pledged their cooperation—there is no reason why the bulk of the 56 indicted in 1969 and the 78 cited previously cannot receive trial this spring.

This would not only achieve justice for all parties but provide a big boost in public respect for our structure of laws and the process by which law violators are dealt with.

He has suggested that a Fiscal Transfer Board be created, composed of the governor, the director of finance and the state treasurer which would have the authority to temporarily transfer money from certain earmarked funds, to tide the state over the difficult months.

There are approximately $300 million in funds such as the Agricultural Premium Fund, the Drivers Education Fund and many others.

In some of these—such as the Agricultural Premium Fund—the governor already has the authority to transfer money to the general revenue fund.

But in many others, this is not the case. If some such action is not taken, the state will find itself in the awkward situation of being "broke," while at the same time it has more than $300 million sitting idly in various earmarked funds.

In no case would this apply to pension funds, which should not be touched for such purposes.

Since the governor appoints the director of finance, the net effect would be to give him two out of the three votes, but the presence of the state treasurer is a safeguard to prevent hasty or ill-considered action.

The proposal by the state treasurer makes sense.

State Wisely Moving to Expand Election Of the National Convention Delegates

The mathematics of presidential delegate Democratic leaders were assailed for exercising too big a role in naming delegates last year. Forty-eight were elected publicly in each party, compared to the grand total of 58 Republican and 18 Democratic national convention delegates.

Perhaps partly because Democrats outnumbered the adherents of the other party, they have tended to choose their delegates from lists in recent years, giving numerical bonuses for a variety of political achievements and efforts. Yet Illinois law limits the election process to two delegates from each of the 24 Congressional districts.

Mayor Daley of Chicago had the major voice in determining the remaining 70 Illinois delegates, 59% of the state's total, and also backed many of the other 48. Interestingly, his lieutenants sponsored the bill passed by the Illinois Senate requiring election of all delegates, and made plans to support it in the House of Representatives.

Illinois is still resisting the temptation to invite a national spotlight by conducting a full-fledged primary election, the chief presidential contender. But it appears to be moving a lot closer to injecting more democratic (with a small "d") procedures into the quadrennial task.

It would be a good move because, as voters are aware, their November choice is extremely limited; for practical purposes, one or two nominees are certain to govern the 200 million Americans. The public needs to make its views known long before then.

The "Squeeze Period" in State Finances

What will happen to Governor Richard Ogilvie's recommendations for increased taxes is not yet clear, though some type of tax increase will be passed by the legislature.

There will be a period, however, between July 1 and perhaps October 15 when the new revenue is not available in significant amounts, yet expenditures for school aid and other things will be draining the treasury.

One possibility of getting by this "squeeze period" is to increase some taxes which will produce immediate, substantial revenue.

A better suggestion has been made by State Treasurer Adlai E. Stevenson III.

He has suggested that a Fiscal Transfer Board be created, composed of the governor, the director of finance and the state treasurer which would have the authority to temporarily transfer money from certain earmarked funds, to tide the state over the difficult months.

There are approximately $300 million in funds such as the Agricultural Premium Fund, the Drivers Education Fund and many others.

In some of these—such as the Agricultural Premium Fund—the governor already has the authority to transfer money to the general revenue fund.

But in many others, this is not the case. If some such action is not taken, the state will find itself in the awkward situation of being "broke," while at the same time it has more than $300 million sitting idly in various earmarked funds.

Many Soviet Observers in U. S.

(U. S. Department of State)

Did the U.S.S.R. actually send observers to our presidential election campaign? If so, could you please tell me more about these observers?

I watched the campaign with great interest, but heard nothing about this.

M. J. Warren, Mich.

Dear M.J.: The United States encourages persons from all parts of the world to witness the free elections which are one of the cornerstones of our democratic form of government.

In fact, there were two types of Soviet "observers" to this year's election campaign. First, there are 26 Soviet news media correspondents regularly accredited to this country, and an additional five who come here by reading by radio and television of their dispatches are carried in Soviet media.

Secondly, there are, of course, the permanent diplomatic "observers" from the Soviet Embassy in Washington who follow the election campaign with great interest, and report their observations to their Government.

Individual Soviet diplomats were invited in 1968, as in the past, to attend the national political party conventions as guests of the Department of State or of various American offices.

What we do not doubt is that the reports of these Soviet observers are colored by their own political beliefs and their knowledge of what they should write, we are hopeful that the Soviet people will obtain some flavor of our democratic process by reading between the lines of their own media reports.

Fortunately, the Soviet people have more sophisticated life in the West than it is sometimes given credit for.

PUBLIC INVITED TO GC AIR BOARD MEETING
To the Editor:

In the Monday issue of the Press-Record on April 28, a resident of East 20th street expressed criticism of industry and the lack of action to correct the red-oxide dust problem. As chairman of our Granite City Air Pollution Control Board, I would like to assure the residents of the affected area that this problem has not been forgotten. Granite City Steel officials have appropriated substantial sums to eliminate what they term "fugitive" dust from their BOF facility. The adequacy of the corrections is scheduled for a definitive review at our next board meeting.

At our April 14 meeting, Prof. Erwin Hoelcher, Chairman of the Board, reported that he had not observed any new red-oxide discoloration on a set of monitoring panels which have been installed in the area for the past several months. If further discoloration should be observed, this information should be brought to the attention of Prof. Hoelcher or any member of the Air Pollution Board, or the mayor.

At the present time it is impossible for the local Board of Air Pollution to monitor air pollution emissions and to determine the frequency of malfunctions, since the board has not been able to hire an inspector because of its restricted budget. For the past year, the council budgeted only $800 for air pollution control. As everyone knows, there is a multitude of demands on the city council for

New Federal Law Similar to 1967 Illinois State Truth-in-Lending Act

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

The federal Truth-in-Lending law which goes into effect next July 1 is similar in some respects to laws already on the books in Illinois.

The federal law will require full disclosure of a buyer's obligations under a credit sales transaction. And, effective Jan. 1, 1970, it establishes the first federal minimum on the amount of a worker's wages that can be garnished.

To help improve consumer understanding of credit transactions, the Truth-in-Lending measures require that a prospective installment buyer be entitled to know:

- 1) The cash price of the merchandise.
- 2) The annual interest rate figured on the balance of the declining obligation.
- 3) Other costs, including insurance charges.
- 4) The number of installment payments, amounts and due dates.

Substantially similar disclosures are required by Illinois Retail Installment Sales Act in connection with the retail installment sales contract. The Act was completely revised and strengthened by the 1967 legislature.

The new federal law will make the first $48 of a weekly pay check exempt from garnishment.

Very large numbers of older people admitted to the hospital have been found to be suffering from lack of water-dehydration.

(American Association for the Advancement of Science)

Following man's imminent "By aiming the skills of personal exploration of the moon, the major objective of our future space efforts should be directed to the goal of better understanding, better predicting, and better conserving of our atmospheric and oceanic environment," says Walter Roberts, President, of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Calling on President Nixon to make a commitment to this inspiring goal, the American Association says that in making such a commitment the President will search in concert, with joint planning and joint execution, it is a rare chance for initiative.

He declined to swear out a warrant and she was released by state police. She came to a second time, this time, however, she was caught by a patrolman and taken to the police station. ## E. J. Heintz to Attend Washington Meeting

Edward J. Heintz, president of the Granite City Letter Carriers' union, will attend the Letter Carriers' Political Action Conference in Washington, D.C. Monday through Wednesday, it was reported today.

About 3000 carriers will attend the conference which will be sponsored by the National Association of Letter Carriers, AFL-CIO. Keynote address will be delivered by U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough, chairman of the Postal Affairs subcommittee and chairman of the Senate Appropriations subcommittee.

Tuesday the carriers will express their respective congressional and senators to present views on legislation affecting postal workers. Heintz said the carriers are concerned particularly with postal reorganization, annuity legislation, full payment of health insurance premiums and union recognition by law.

Principal interest will be directed to wage issues. Heintz said, noting that a bill has been introduced that would raise wages of letter carriers to $10,000 annually after five years service. He said this bill would eliminate the 2-year "apprenticeship" which carriers now serve.

"It is rather discouraging to a letter carrier to learn that he has to work four years to make the same salary that a local sanitation worker gets the day he starts," Heintz said.

The Garden Corner

Time to Spray Fruit Plants

Spring has advanced slowly and most fruit plants have grown past the bloom stage. This means it is time to start the weekly protective sprays needed for insect and disease control.

A combination spray of malathion, methoxychlor, captan and zineb should be applied to all bearing trees now. If you do not want to mix these materials yourself, buy an "all-purpose" or a "fruit-tree" spray mix and follow the directions on the package.

The same spray should be applied to raspberries and grapes now. Strawberries are blooming, so treat only with captan for disease control.

Garden Planting Time

Many gardens are behind schedule due to the cold, wet soil conditions. However, a few warm days will help everything grow.

It is time to start planting the warm season crops. Tomatoes, peppers, beans, eggplant, cucumbers and melons all require warm conditions for good growth. Later planting of these crops may do best, but if you want to start planting now, go ahead.

Take time to prepare a good seedbed. A poor seedbed or soil improperly worked may result in poor stands, poor plant growth, and poor till for most of the summer. The soil should be moist but not sticky when worked.

A few variety suggestions for this area are Contender and Tendergreen green snap beans; Kentucky Wonder pole bean; Henderson Bush lima bean; Purple Hybrid and Challenger cucumber; Black Magic and Black Beauty eggplant; Harper and Supermarket muskmelon; Golden Wonder and Yolo Wonder pepper; and Sugar Baby and Crimson Sweet watermelon.

Many other varieties may perform satisfactorily, but these have been widely tested and grown by both gardeners and researchers.

Sixteen building permits, including six for homes, were issued for new construction in Nameoki township during April. Values totaled $145,995.

Permits for homes were obtained by E. C. Ed Moore Construction Co. obtained a permit to construct an office building in State Park Place at a cost of $14,500 and a permit for another office for $4,000.

Permits for other purposes were issued to: Robert Dagon, an addition and remodeling of a home in Miracle Manor, $2000; Myrl Neuberger, a mobile home in Roseland Place No. 1, Robert Kiselka, raze an existing garage at a cost of $300 and erect another garage in Miracle Manor, $1,500.

Walter M. Lewis, install siding on a residence in Cedar View, $300; Ralph Long Jr., add a playroom and patio in Miracle Manor No. 1, $1000; William Miller, a garage, porch and roof in Simon Park, $3500; and Western Construction Co., install aluminum siding in State Park place, $1000.

One permit in Chouteau township was issued to Albert Crumley for a garage in Meadowlane No. 1, $300.

Two Local Artists Take Part in Exhibit

Two area artists, Carter E. Knipping, Rural Route Two, and Phillip Murray, 2501 Washington avenue, entered their works of art in the Northside Art Association's Art Competition which ended this week at Florissant, Mo.

Knipping received an honorable mention for a ceramic sculpture relief entitled, "The Corner." He is presently completing his education at SIU-SW campus following his tour of duty in the armed services most recently in Vietnam.

Murray also had an exhibit in the show. He had previously received the St. Louis Twentieth Century Art Club Award for a welded steel sculpture, "Tricyclic," on exhibit at the St. Louis Artist Guild through May 24.

While teaching art in the Roxana junior and high schools, Murray, is working toward an MFA degree at SIU-SW where he earned his B.A.

Diagnostic Center Opens for Pre-Schoolers

A second diagnostic and educational evaluation center for pre-school children from Madison and St. Clair counties has been established. Located on Pog road, Edwardsville, the center is for children with low incidence handicaps. In November of last year a similar clinic was opened in Cahokia.

Traveling distance for the northern Madison county area to Cahokia was a factor in establishing this center, according to Director Burdette Thurman.

The center is set up through cooperation of special education directors in the two counties and Southern Illinois University-Southern campus. An $80,000 federal grant, administered through the offices of Ray Page, superintendent of public instruction, is financing the center. The grant is under provisions of Title VI of the Elementary Secondary Education Act. There is no charge for the center's services.

Staff members at the center examine and diagnose children with low-incidence handicaps—visual, hearing, physical and multiple handicaps. Teaching programs are adjusted to each child's needs and are then recommended by the staff.

When indicated special teachers at the center will try to recommend educational approaches with the children to be certain they are workable. Recommendations are then sent to the children's schools to enable the school to plan the educational program the child needs.

Thurman, director for both centers, is on leave from the University of Illinois Division of Services for Crippled Children in Belleville.

Other full-time staff people are James Sloan, a hearing disorders specialist, and Mrs. Philippine Maldonado of Belleville. Part-time staff includes Mrs. Carol Reinking of Edwardsville, a psychologist; Caroline Buck of East St. Louis, an audiologist and a teacher of the deaf; Mrs. Marietta Chelin of Collinsville, a teacher of the retarded; and Mrs. Mary Horn of Alton an occupational therapist. Children can be referred to the center by clinics, agencies that usually deal with low-incidence handicapped children, physicians, or parents.

Harmony Engle-Edis School District 175 is administering the center. Persons may call the Edwardsville center, 656-7077, for information or appointments. If there is no answer information may be secured from the Cahokia Center, 1406 Camp Jackson road, (Ill. 157), phone 332-6576. The Edwardsville center is being leased from SIU-SW.

Council Reverses Stand—Double Pay for Poll Judges

Granite City council members reversed their action of April 28 during the week's Monday night meeting and voted unanimously to give double pay to April 1 city election precinct judges who handled both city and township elections.

The reverse action was voted as about 35 women polling place judges who had not yet been paid were in the audience. Following the election last month, the council had decided to share election costs—judges pay, polling place rental and meals with the township; and while on April 21, the aldermen voted full pay for both city and township judges and double pay for those who worked both elections, that action was reversed at the April 28 meeting.

At Monday night's meeting, the vote on double pay for the election judges was conducted by the retiring council—before the new aldermen were seated. Of the three retiring aldermen—Bartosiak, Fry and Johnson—only Johnson was present.

Legal Opinion
Basarich, who had made the amendment motion last week to avoid double payment of election judges, calling for a change in the minutes. He asked City Atty. Scroggins for a prepared legal opinion on the double payment, and Scroggins replied that because of the council's action last week, he assumed the opinion on double pay was not needed.

Basarich then asked for Scroggins to give an "off-the-cuff" opinion, and the attorney replied that state law would permit payment for each election worked and that there were two elections on April 1. He added that he knew of no cases on the matter to obtain a court ruling.

The election judges gave Scroggins a round of applause. As Basarich motioned for the judges to receive double pay for handling both elections, Whitmer stressed the need for the council to strive for uniform city-township precincts to avoid continued difficulties. "Along with being beneficial to the voters, this pay problem is another reason the precincts should be the same."

The question was posed by several aldermen as to why city precinct judges had not been paid. Mayor Partney replied that the confusion of council action at the outset over sharing costs with the township and then the vote last week not to pay double was the cause.

Buck-Passing Remark
Nonn took the floor and remarked there should be no buck-passing and that the council should realize its mistake of last week "and correct it." He was cheered.

"From now on," he added, "we'll have separate city and township elections." Whitmer challenged Nonn's "buck-passing comment."

"The mayor did what the council instructed him to do. That's not buck-passing. Now we need to reconsider what we need to do," Whitmer stated.

Alderman Green, who urged double pay, added that in some precincts the judges did not get meals. He was reminded the delivery of the meals was left a responsibility of the city with arrangements to be made by the aldermen.

Following the favorable vote for double pay, a spokesman for the judges asked when the checks would be ready. She was advised the earliest possible time would be Wednesday.

Judges Leary of Council
Most of the judges remained for the entire council session after expressing concern, "the council might change its mind again."

Later in the meeting, the issue did arise again—the issue over payment of rental fees for polling places.

The council voted to pay double rent for locations used for both city and township polling places. Objections were raised by Aldermen Jarrett and Boker, who were joined by Rutledge in voting against the double rental fee.

Under the double-pay program, at least 55 judges are receiving the double amount, with the pay ranging from $50 to $80, depending on the number of votes cast in the precinct.

County Urged to Initiate Jail Project

Recommendation that Madison county act immediately to create a Public Building Commission, to construct a new county jail is being advanced by Marshall H. Smith, civil assistant state's attorney who said there is no alternate for the building commission procedure for erecting county institutional facilities.

In a special report to the Madison county board of supervisors, Smith reviewed data of a Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Building Commission study in 1966 which gave top priority to a county jail as the most urgently needed facility, and noted that with reduction of the tax levy for the TB fund next year, the county could finance a $4 million improvement without an increase in the tax rate.

The Public Building Commission plan has been under consideration of the county board for several months but a proposal for its establishment never has advanced to voting stage. Under Illinois law, the county board may create a building commission which would have the authority to issue revenue bonds without a referendum to finance construction of buildings that would be rented to the county under long-term lease agreements.

Tax Without Referendum
The county board also has authority under the Building Commission laws to set a tax rate for the amount of the necessary rental fees, also without a referendum. The county's annual rental would be based on a sum sufficient to retire the cost of the structure over a 20-year period, at which time ownership of the building would be turned over to the county.

Smith noted in his report that the SIMAPC study listed as the first three priorities for new county jail is being advanced by Marshall H. Smith, civil assistant state's attorney who said there is no alternate for the building commission procedure for erecting county institutional facilities.

He said the report estimated cost of the county jail at $1,727,000, the county administration building at $2,139,000 and renovation of the present courthouse at $1,204,000. The county jail was given first priority because of the deteriorated structural condition of the 56-year-old building, Smith said.

Smith referred in the report to population projections of the SIMAPC study which estimates a Madison county population of about 410,000 by 1980 and predicts that the rate of growth in Madison county will outstrip any other section of the metropolitan area by 1985.

"Building needs were studied with regard to the functions performed," Smith said, "along with the county's projections and additional functions that will be required. For example, I estimate that the county collector's job will be abolished and that this correspondingly will increase the function of the county treasurer's office."

"The present courthouse was built in 1915 and it is stated that it reached its capacity about 1935 and that needs have grown faster than space provided. There is a projection of how much space will be needed by 1985 by each of the county offices and services. The most critical are in this order: jail, county treasurer, building and zoning, county clerk, circuit clerk and circuit court."

Smith told the board in his report that the state's attorney's office "is interested in promoting the establishment of a Public Building Commission for no selfish reason. We will handle whatever legal issues are necessary without any legal fee to any private attorney. We are not in favor of a new building to make things easier on the county employees."

"All of us are familiar with where to go and what to do on the county level; the general public is not. They deserve a more orderly reception when they come to the courthouse to transact their business. Further, their demands for service, which we cannot escape, will have to be met."

"Under the Gun"
"Increased density of the population by itself and considered alone puts us directly under the gun," Smith added, "and we feel that the county has a solemn responsibility to provide these services as economically as possible. Further, the time is right to get into this construction without adding to the property tax load."

Smith continued: "We (the state's attorney's office) do have an interest in a new jail. People in this com-

A memorial gift on behalf of their serviceman son, killed in 1966, was presented this week by a Granite City couple to the Boosters of the Fighting Warriors to be used to complete the pressbox facilities now under construction at the Granite City high school athletic field.

Kindergarten, Head Start Registration Scheduled

Kindergarten and Head Start registration schedules at Harris and Blair schools in Madison were announced today for the 1969-70 school year, along with inoculation requirements that must be met by youngsters entering school for the first time.

Porter Cawley, principal of Harris school who is in charge of the program, said that kindergarten and Head Start registration will be held May 13, 14 and 15 from 1 to 3 p.m. at Harris school, and from 12:30 to 3:40 p.m. on May 20, 21 and 22 at Blair school.

To be eligible to enroll in kindergarten a child must be five years old on or before Dec. 31. Parents of enrollees in kindergarten classes must present a birth certificate or other legal proof of the date of birth, pay a $1 registration fee and obtain health cards for physical examinations and immunization form required by the Illinois School code.

Prior to admission to the school system, all children must present evidence of immunity against diphtheria, polio, measles, tetanus, smallpox, measles and whooping cough, Cawley said.

Booster Shots Required
Any child under six who has not been immunized against diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus must receive three injections for these. Any child who, upon entry, has had a primary series of diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus in the past shall require a booster shot if he is under six and has not had a booster since the age of three.

Cawley said the smallpox vaccination or revaccination shall be valid if the time elapsed since vaccination or revaccination does not exceed four years prior to entering kindergarten or first grade. The child must present evidence that he has been immunized against red measles prior to entering kindergarten or first grade, or a statement from the parent, guardian or physician that the child has had measles.

If a child has received primary immunization against polio with oral polio vaccine,

ONLY MEMBERS
OF THE G.C. BOARD OF REALTORS ARE LISTED ON THIS PAGE

An Open Letter To The General Public (Regarding the Profession of Real Estate)

Did you know that just any Real Estate Man is not a "REALTOR" and that a "REALTOR" is not just any Real Estate man?

A "REALTOR" is a "TRUE FULL TIME" (he has no other job) PROFESSIONAL BUSINESS MAN pledged to a STRICT CODE OF ETHICS in all real estate transactions with the general public. A man of great knowledge, character, and experience. A highly trained PROFESSIONAL who knows what he is doing at all times and who subscribes fully to the rigid rules and regulations of the CODE OF ETHICS as laid down by the LOCAL, STATE and NATIONAL Real Estate Boards of America. A man of pride and action. A full time PROFESSIONAL who has proudly earned the right to use the term "REALTOR."

THE REALTOR'S PLEDGE

- To protect the individual right of real estate ownership and to widen the opportunity to enjoy it;
- To be honorable and honest in all dealings;
- To seek better to represent my clients by building my knowledge and competence;
- To act fairly towards all in the spirit of the Golden Rule;
- To serve well my community, and through it my country;
- To observe the Realtor's Code of Ethics and conform my conduct to its lofty ideals.

So when you think of Real Estate "always call a REALTOR." He will serve you well; you can "always reach him"; he is "always there" (he is never away working at some "more important" job to earn a living); and you can be "SURE" that you can buy, sell, rent, or lease homes or property with Safety, Confidence and Dignity.

SW Bell Adds to Expanded Direct Dialing Service

Southwestern Bell is enlarging its Expanded Direct Distance Dialing service to customers in this area.

Beginning May 18, customers in the following exchanges will be able to dial their own person-to-person, credit card, collect and bill-to-third number Long Distance calls:

Granite City — 451, 452, 876, 877, 931 and 797.

Edgemont—397 and 398.

East St. Louis—337 and 332.

Joe Smith, local manager for Southwestern Bell, said installation of new equipment has just been completed for the new service. It is called Expanded Direct Distance Dialing.

Smith said Expanded DDD is similar to station-to-station DDD. "The difference is, you dial '0' instead of '1' to start your call," he explained.

For example, to dial a person-to-person call to a phone that is inside the '618' area, dial '0', plus the number you want to reach. To call outside the '618' area, dial '0', plus the area code, plus the number desired.

Smith explained a s the call starts on its way through the Long Distance network, an operator will come on the line to assist the caller as needed.

"The same is true for collect and credit card calls and for calls charged to a third number," he said. Customers should continue to dial the access code, "1," for station-to-station toll calls.

There will be no extra charge to the customer for the new service, which is designed to speed completion of long distance calls.

Apostles of Slaves Services Planned

The day of SS, Cyril and Methodius, Apostles of the Slavs, will be celebrated at Holy Trinity Bulgarian Orthodox Church, 15th street and Grand avenue, Madison, Sunday, starting at 10 a.m.

Divine Liturgy will be served by the priest, Very Rev. Peter Stamboldjiev, followed by lunch in the new church hall and a special program by the church choir and Bulgarian-Macedonian orchestra. Featured will be old hymns and folk songs.

Rev. Stamboldjiev explained that after the deaths of the brothers, Bulgaria became the real center of the Slavic Christian culture. The schools were founded, the libraries were collected, the translators began work and all of these created a Christian literature, a Christian art, and Christian Slavic traditions which nurtured the spiritual growth of all the other Slavic nations, Russians, Serbians and Slovians.

All the church members and guests are invited to this 1100 years anniversary celebration.
